EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Returning to the World Economic Forum (WEF) after more than a decade, I see there is an emphasis on discussing the important role of mental well-being, resilience, reimagining globalisation, sustainability, sociocultural harmony and happiness in economic and social development.

A peaceful society is the basis of a prosperous society and I am happy that world leaders are placing a great deal of importance on recognising and addressing these issues. The theme of this year's WEF is 'Cooperation in a Fragmented World.' The current perception of fragmentation is not new. We must know that conflict, division, chaos and confusion sprout in the minds of people. It has to be countered with commitment, caring and collective resolve. This can happen only when leaders cultivate the mind to be calm and take considered decisions. We all need to recognise that we live in an interconnected world. There is no substitute for cooperation for the general good of the world.

Economic ups and downs are a natural part of the world economic order and not all parts of the economy flourish at the same time. For example, the tourism industry reduced significantly during the pandemic, whereas the healthcare industry flourished. While the transportation industry suffered significantly, the medical supplies industry increased and as in-person physical conferences shut down, people adopted virtual conferences. The advancement of technology allowed governments and business leaders to rethink their strategies and made us more resilient.

The distant mountains surrounding Davos reflect the calm, beauty and peace inherent in nature — a reminder to the world that we need to maintain, protect and enjoy them for generations to come. Peace is the only way forward, without peace there is no prosperity, and without prosperity, there is no peace. And we need wisdom for both.

A unique tea from caterpillar droppings

Tokyo: Chu-hi-cha is the name of a new type of tea discovered by a Japanese researcher at Kyoto University. It involves brewing the droppings of caterpillars that have feasted on various plants.

Tsuyoshi Maruoka came up with the idea of caterpillar tea during graduate studies at Kyoto University's Faculty of Agriculture, while researching the mysterious relationship between insects and plants. One day, a senior brought 50 gypsy moth larvae into the lab and told Maruoka that they were a souvenir. When cleaning the droppings left by the critters, he noticed that they had a pleasantly fragrant smell and was almost instantly inspired to brew them into tea.

Inspired by his discovery, Tsuyoshi Maruoka decided to create a commercial version. He already blew past his original goal of 1 million yen (7,800 dollars) and with 11 days left, the researcher is on track to surpass 2 million yen (15,600 dollars) in pledged funds.

Resume bus services from J.P. Nagar last stop, Gurur ORR junction

Sir,

I am a commuter of KSRTC (Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation) city bus. The following buses which were stopped two years back due to COVID-19 pandemic are yet to resume operations:

Route No. 10A of Kuvempunagar Bus Depot which was operating from J.P. Nagar last bus stop to L&T via Chamundipuram, Ramaswamy Circle, Dasappa Circle and Vontikoppal.

Route No. 11R of Kuvempunagar Depot and Satagalli Depot which were operating from J.P. Nagar last bus stop to City Bus Stand via Chamundipuram, Railway Station, K.R. Hospital and Suburban Bus Stand.

Route No. 11RG of Kuvempunagar Depot which was operating from Outer Ring Road (ORR) junction near Gurur to City Bus Stand via St. Thomas School, Ramanuja Road and JSS Hospital.

Route Nos. 15 and 15A of Bannimantap Depot which was operating from J.P. Nagar last bus stop to B.M. Sri Nagar.

Route Nos. 72 and 135 of Kuvempunagar Bus Depot.

As such, daily commuters, including office-goers as well as school and college students, are put to a lot of hardship every day.

We are finding it difficult to reach our destination in time due to the lack of city buses. We are forced to hire autorickshaw by spending from our pocket to reach the places even though we have monthly bus pass.

Buses which come almost full from J.P. Nagar last bus stop will not provide stoppage at Goblimara stop. Every day there will be big crowd at Goblimara bus stop between 8.30 am and 9.30 am.

I request the transport authorities concerned, in the interest of general public, to look into it and resume the service of the above mentioned buses at the earliest and also operate ITS board which shows the real time arrival of the buses, as well as introduce SMS facility (No. 161), so that the passengers can have information about the arrival of buses.

CANCER CERVIX: WE CAN BEAT IT! - 2
How to detect it early?: These tests are done before women develop symptoms (SCREENING TESTS). Pap smear (smear is taken from the cervix and sent for analysis)- is an outpatient procedure: which can detect even precancerous lesions. It should be done once in 3 years for more than 21 years of age or Cotesting (Pap smear + HPV testing) for 5 years for more than 30 years. How to diagnose cancer? Punch biopsy of visible cervical growth, Colposcopy, and guided biopsy of suspicious area in the cervix, Scanning (MRI or CT) of local part, Chest x-ray, CT scan chest, or PET CT is done to stage the disease. How to treat? If it's detected in the precancerous/ very early stage, uterus-preserving surgeries can be done and can cure the patient. Surgery (Total removal of the uterus with cervix- Radical hysterectomy) is done in the early stage. Advanced stages need chemotherapy with radiation.
How to reduce the risk of cervix cancer development? Safe sex practice, getting the screening tests regularly, administering HPV vaccine for girls of 9-14 years. Cancer of CERVIX is one significant cancer- there are methods to prevent it, detect it early, and cure it if it is early stage. Indian women can have better health if all are aware of it.

'Information in local language crucial in Zoo development'

Member-Secretary of Central Zoo Authority Sanjay Kumar Shukla at Zoo Directors Conference valedictory

Mysuru, Jan. 21 (MTY&BCT)- The two-day National Conference for Zoo Directors that began at Hotel Radisson Blu Plaza on Jan. 18 concluded on Thursday evening. Over 57 delegates including directors and representatives from 25 States, experts and resource persons and senior officials attended the conference that was organised by Central Zoo Authority (CZA) and Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK)

Central Zoo Authority (CZA) Member-Secretary Dr. Sanjay Kumar Shukla addressing the gathering at the valedictory function of the two-day National Conference for Zoo Directors at Hotel Radisson Blu Plaza in city on Thursday evening as Zoo Authority of Karnataka (ZAK) Chairman M. Shivakumar, ZAK Member-Secretary B.P. Ravi, Mysuru Zoo Executive Director Ajit Kulkarni and others look on.

In his valedictory address, Member-Secretary of Central Zoo Authority Dr. Sanjay Kumar Shukla said that it is important to disseminate information at all Zoos in the local language that can be easily understood by the local population.

"Zoos play a keyrole in nature education and spreading the message of how important it is to save wildlife. The idea of a Zoo in a particular region is to disseminate information and if the information is in an alien language, the purpose is not served. For example, the Zoos in Karnataka must have information in Kannada so that people can understand and be a part of conservation efforts," he said.

He called upon all Zoo Directors to reach out to the people on the conservation and animal rescue initiatives. "Unless the information reaches the public in the language they understand, we cannot involve people in conservation efforts. "What the Zoos are doing on biodiversity conservation must be told to the society for greater involvement and participation," he opined

Best practices to be shared

Principal Chief Conservator of Forest and Chief Wildlife Warden Rajiv Ranjan said that Karnataka could share the best practices that are being implemented across all its Zoos and the success story can be replicated in the Zoos of other States. "We will be happy to share the best practices if you think some initiatives in our State Zoos are worth adopting towards improving the management of Zoos," he said.

At the same time, the Karnataka Zoos are ready to incorporate suggestions or feedback that have been expressed at the conference, he said. Complimenting Mysuru Zoo for its many initiatives, Ranjan said that the Chamarajendra Zoological Gardens (Mysuru Zoo) is one of the best and oldest Zoos in India that is very well managed.

"I am amazed by the way the Mysuru Zoo is spreading the message of conservation and educating visitors on wildlife. Its summer camps are much in demand and people stand in a beeline to glean information from animal handlers and officers," he said.

Revenue sharing

Ranjan recalled how funds poured into the Mysuru Zoo when the COVID pandemic was at its peak and at a time when the gate collection was zero.

"At a time when many Zoos were struggling to manage their day-to-day affairs, the Mysuru Zoo comfortably handled the crisis and the ZAK was able to distribute funds to other Zoos in Karnataka," he revealed.

On the revenue generation part, Rajiv Ranjan noted that the surplus revenue from large Zoos like Bannerghatta Biological Park in Bengaluru and Mysuru Zoo were used to support small and mini Zoos.

"In Karnataka, the large Zoos handheld the smaller ones and supported them during financial crisis and other aspects of development. This is a best practice and can be replicated in all States," he suggested.

Zoo Authority of Karnataka Chairman M. Shivakumar, ZAK Member-Secretary B.P. Ravi, Mysuru Zoo Executive Director Ajit Kulkarni, ZAK Member Jyothi Rechanna and others officials were present.

60-year-old woman killed in leopard attack

Siddamma

T. Narasipur, Jan. 21 (BS)- The fear of leopard attack has returned to haunt villagers here, as in yet another incident, a 60- year-old woman was killed in a similar incident at Kannanayakanahalli in T. Narasipur taluk on Friday. It is the third such incident in the last three months, with two students falling victims in similar cases in the same taluk.

Siddamma, wife of Ningaraju of the village, had gone to fetch firewood in the backyard of her house at about 6 pm, when the feline attacked her. She had suffered bites on her face and other parts of her body. Though she mustered courage to raise an alarm, she had succumbed to the injuries by the time neighbours rushed to her help.

It is said, the leopard tried to drag the body of Siddamma, but fled after seeing the crowd rushing to the spot.

Following the incident, family members of Siddamma were inconsolable. Though Forest Department was informed about the incident, they allegedly did not turn up even an hour after, earning the wrath of irate villagers.

Meanwhile, the body was shifted to T. Narasipur Government General Hospital Mortuary.

MLA M. Ashwin Kumar, who rushed to the spot, collected the information about the incident and consoled the grieving family members of Siddamma.

Tahsildar Geetha, ACF Lakshmikanth, RFO Syed Nadeem, DRFOs Manjunath and Umesh, PSI Pachchegowda and others also visited the spot.

A case has been registered at T. Narasipur Police Station.

After nearly a month-long operation, especially after Meghana's incident, involving 10 expert teams, Forest Department had succeeded in capturing the same leopard that was believed to have claimed the lives of the duo, at Muthathi village on Dec. 22.

During the same time, Forest Department had trapped two more leopards including a three-year-old male leopard at Muthathi village and eight-year-old male leopard at Mallappana Betta. Following the trapping of leopards, the villagers nearby had heaved a sigh of relief.

New Parliament building to open by January end

The exterior of the new Parliament building.

New Delhi, Jan. 21 (Agencies)- The new Parliament building is likely to be open by January end as the last-minute preparations are underway. The Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs (MoHUA), Government of India, is responsible for the construction of new Parliament building and the Central Vista redevelopment.

The Ministry has posted the latest pictures of new Parliament building on its website https://centralvista.gov.in/ last night. The Government source also informed the news agencies that it will soon take a decision on the inauguration of the new Parliament building.

Meanwhile, amid reports of the President's address in the new Parliament building, Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla has said that President Droupadi Murmu will address the joint sitting of both Houses of Parliament in the existing building.

In a tweet, Birla said that the New Parliament Building is still under construction. "During Budget Session, the Hon'ble President will address Members of two Houses in the existing Parliament House Building," he tweeted. This will be the first address to the two Houses of Parliament by President Murmu since her elevation to the top post in July last year.

The Budget Session will commence on Jan. 31 and the first leg will go on till Feb. 13. The Parliament session will reconvene on March 13 and will go on till 6 April. Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman will present the Union Budget in Parliament on Feb. 1.

Union Housing and Urban Affairs Minister Hardeep Singh Puri had said in November last year that it was up to the Government to select the date of the building's inauguration. In December 2020, Prime Minister Narendra Modi had laid the foundation stone of the new Parliament building which will have modern facilities.

TATA Projects Ltd. is constructing the new Parliament building which will have a grand Constitution Hall to showcase India's democratic heritage, a lounge for members of Parliament, a library, multiple committee rooms, dining areas and ample parking space. The new Parliament building is part of the redevelopment of the Central Vista, the nation's power corridor.

Revamping the three-km Rajpath from the Rashtrapathi Bhavan to the India Gate, constructing a common Central Secretariat, a new office and residence of the Prime Minister, and a new Vice-President enclave are also part of the project being executed by the Central Public Works Department (CPWD), which comes under the MoHUA, Government of India.

Meanwhile, citing security reasons, a couple of actual pictures of the new Parliament building were removed from the dedicated website for the entire Central Vista redevelopment project on Friday.

Mysuru as Export Hub

Mysuru has a huge potential for exports as there are distinct handicrafts and unique specialties like silk sarees, sweets and sandalwood. There is a need for transforming Mysuru into an export hub, participants felt.

Delegates opined that export promotion was never a focus area in the rural areas of the country. Through this initiative, the Government of India intends to contribute to the 'Atma Nirbhar' mission by significantly increasing the manufacturing and exports from urban areas while focusing on generating interest and economic activity in the rural hinterland and small towns in the country to push new businesses to export.

The session discussed coordinated effort towards trade and export promotion from Mysuru that would enhance manufacturing activities, promote goods and services exports, support MSMEs and local artisans, craftsmen, broaden coverage of e-commerce linkages, promote Geographical Indication (GI) products, improve logistics and agricultural sectors and support employment opportunities leading to wide-ranging economic benefits, including investment, manufacturing and export growth.

Global presence of Mysuru's products

In her address, Joint Director and Karnataka Head of Federation of Indian Export Organisations, Soma Chaudhury said that some of the GI products from Mysuru have been identified as Mysuru Agarbathi, Mysuru Silk, Mysuru Rosewood Inlay, Mysuru Sandalwood Oil, Mysuru Sandal Soap, Mysuru Traditional Paintings. With such a range of potential export products which can also be exported through e-commerce, entrepreneurs and exporters from Mysuru have a niche place in the global market.

"There is a lot of potential for export in districts but at the same time there are challenges like infrastructure, logistics, labour, cost of credit, etc. and if we can address these challenges and explore the opportunities of the districts, then exports from the country and State both will increase substantially. These challenges can be solved by infrastructure development, IT infusion and developing digital platforms," she added.

Services and merchandise export value

As far as Karnataka is concerned, the products that showed growth in 2022-23 compared to 2021-22, apart from service exports, are petroleum, aerospace, gem and jewellery, coffee, agro-processed foods, seeds and beverages. "Karnataka stands at fourth position in all India as far as merchandise exports are concerned after Gujarat, Maharashtra and Tamil Nadu. If we take services and merchandise export value together, Karnataka stands second after Gujarat," she added.

In his address, A.K. Shivaji Rao, Honorary Secretary, MCCI, said that the MCCI assures exporters that its main objective is to promote export business and will act as a true representative of businesses. "The MCCI has been conducting seminars, workshops and round table discussions, trade promotion programmes including overseas missions, mailings and event planning. The MCCI acts as a representative between foreign companies and business entities of Mysuru," he said.

Joint Directorate General of Foreign Trade, Bengaluru, H.D. Lokesh; MCCI President K.B. Lingaraju; Joint Director of DIC, Mysuru, T. Dinesh; Assistant Commissioner, Export Promotion Cell - Mysuru Customs, G. Srinath; Joint Commissioner - Enforcement, Commercial Taxes, Mysuru, D. Congress' free power promise impractical: Energy Minister

Sunil Kumar recalls former CM Siddharamaiah's annual budget presentation with a torchlight

Mysuru, Jan. 21 (RK&BCT)- Terming the election promise by the Congress party that if elected to power, it would provide 200 units of free power to every household as bogus, Energy Minister V. Sunil Kumar said that all the electricity supply companies (ESCOMs) in Karnataka suffer severe losses.

The Minister was speaking after launching various development works costing Rs. 116.77 crore in five districts coming under the jurisdiction of Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) at Maharaja College Grounds in the city on Friday.

"These are all hollow promises as the Congress is desperate to grab power in Karnataka. The free power scheme will amount to Rs. 7,000 crore - Rs. 7,500 crore annually as there are nearly 1.8 crore domestic connections of which around 65 percent consume less than 200 units per month," Sunil Kumar reasoned.

ESCOMs making profits

The BJP Government already provides 38 percent of power consumption free to farmers and another 10-15 percent to the economically weaker sections under the Bhagya Jyothi and Kuteer Jyothi schemes. "The ESCOMs in Karnataka are now making profits after the BJP Government came to power. We are not privatising ESCOMs and not launching any projects that push them towards privatisation. Instead, we are strengthening the ESCOMs and this reformation has yielded profits," the Minister claimed.

"The previous Congress Government led by Siddharamaiah put ESCOMs in difficulty by availing loans to the tune of Rs. 33,000 crore. The Congress has pushed ESCOMs into a financial crisis and the party's present promise of free 200 units of power is impractical. The Government owes Rs. 33,000 crore to five ESCOMs, thanks to the mismanagement of the previous Congress regime and providing free power will only increase their dues and would destabilise their functioning," Sunil Kumar said.

Siddharamaiah's torchlight budget

People of Karnataka are not asking for free power but quality and uninterrupted power supply. "We have seen what happened in Delhi and Punjab where free power was promised. The Congress has come up with the promise on realising that it would not be able to win the coming Assembly elections. It has resorted to its patented freebies culture," he added.

"The Siddharamaiah Government pushed ESCOMs towards bankruptcy. You might have forgotten about having read the budget in darkness and how you struggled reading the papers with a torchlight as there was a power crisis due to your mismanagement. This is proof of how the Energy Department functioned during your tenure. Siddharamaiah was forced to use a torchlight to read out the annual budget, till power came back," Sunil Kumar recalled.

ESCOMs will shut down

MP Pratap Simha too took a dig at the Congress' poll promise and said the ESCOMs have to be shut down if free power poll promise was implemented. "There will be no money left with ESCOMs to pay for the salaries of the staff if power was supplied for free," he said.

"I urge the Energy Department to spread awareness on this issue and educate the people not to trust such promises or statements. People should not fall for the free power promises," Simha added. The MP suggested establishing more electric vehicle charging stations on the Mysuru-Bengaluru Expressway.

Chamaraja MLA L. Nagendra presided over the event. Chamundeshwari MLA G.T. Devegowda, Mayor Shivakumar, CESC Managing Director Jayavibhavaswamy, Chairman of Boards and Corporations, CESC officials and engineers were present.

Deve Gowda couple takes part in Chandika Homa at Ch. Hill

Mysuru, Jan. 21 (MTY&BS)- Former Prime Minister H.D. Deve Gowda and his wife Channamma took part in Chandika Homa organised at Chamundi Hill temple here on Friday.

Thousands witness Car Fest

Nanjangud, Jan.21 (BS)- Adi Jagadguru Sri Shivarathreeshwara Shivayogigala Rathotsava (car festival) organised as part of Suttur Jatra, was witnessed by thousands of devotees at Suttur Srikshetra in Nanjangud taluk on Friday. The annual fest was conducted amid the chanting of vedic hymns and renting of slogans by enthused devotees that defined the mood.

Prior to the fest, various religious rituals were performed to Utsava Murthis of Adi Jagadguru before installing them in Dodda Ratha and Chikka Ratha, decorated with flowers, clothes, along with Kalasha.

The cars went through Raja Beedhis and reached Doddamma Thaayi Circle before returning to the starting point.

In all, 38 folk troupes from in and outside the State like Nandi Dhwaja, Garudi Gombe, Stilt Walkers, Veeragase, Dollu Kunita, Puja Kunita, Karadimela, Nadaswara, Janj Mela, Koravanji Kolata, Hulivesha along with umbrellas added colour to the fest.

Police had made elaborate security arrangements.

Stop converting from Hindu religion

Former Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa, who took part in the inauguration of car festival, opined that 'Law alone cannot help in checking religious conversions for permanent, but the activities undertaken by Mutts by creating awareness in the society and providing shelter to destitutes, dalits and backward classes.'

He also appealed to restrain the possibilities of converting from Hindu religion to others due to inevitable reasons and bring back those who have already converted to other religions.

The Mutts have found a place in the hearts of the people in rural areas by providing various Government services. Hence I started the initiative of granting funds to Mutts in the budget. Even the Governments that came later have continued with the initiative. Suttur Mutt has been providing a platform to rural talents during the jatra and introducing technology and modernity to farmers, he added.

No to plastic

Royal family member Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar gave a call to desist from total usage of plastic. Due to unabated use of plastic, there has been a rise in pollution levels of soil and environment. It has even taken a toll on man's health. It is our duty to protect better environment inherited from our ancestors for posterity.

Urban Development Minister Byrathi Basavaraj, senior journalist Vishweshwar Bhat, Hosadurga Bhagiratha Uppara Peetha's Sri Purushothamamandapuri Swamiji, Chairman of Karnataka Compost Development Corporation Limited S. Mahadevaiah, Chairman of Karnataka State Tourism Development Corporation Ka. Pu. Siddalinga Swamy, Veena Thotakura, Chairman of Karnataka Border Area Development Authority Dr. C. Somashekar, Venkatesh Hosabale and Ashwini Siddaramappa were present.

'Living in unity' moral of religion: Siddu

Leader of Opposition in Legislative Assembly Siddharamaiah has said 'living in unity is the moral of religion. The religion is created by we mortals, not God. However, the efforts are being made to create rift among castes on the grounds of religion. The religious preaching will not better the lives of the people. There are no people for religion, but there are many religions for the people.'

He was addressing the gathering after inaugurating desi games, drawing and kite contests organised as part of Suttur Jatra.

"Two thousand years ago, women were worshipped during vedic period. Nowadays, she is restricted to the house. Women became educated due to Basavanna and various other Sharanas," said Siddharamaiah.

"Sports is pivotal to man's life, as such activities keep them active. Earlier, we were playing desi games like Iagori, swing among others, but people have forgotten them now. Instead, they prefer to play cards from morning till evening," rued Siddharamaiah.

MLA N. Mahesh said "Suttur Jatra is one among the wonders in Indian culture as it reflects the grandeur, with farmers taking part in the fest, after toiling hard in their fields for six months."

Former Minister P. G. R. Sindhia and Soraba MLA Kumar Bangarappa also spoke on the occasion. Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji, Vatal Mutt Seer Sri Siddalinga Shivacharya Swamiji, Arya Ediga Mahasamsthana Peetha's Sri Vikyathananda Swamiji and Eshapriya Teertha Sri Padangal graced the occasion.

Opposition Leader Siddharamaiah inaugurating desi games at Suttur yesterday as Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji looks on.
